LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Flagstaff City Council humbly acknowledges the ancestral homelands of this area's Indigenous nations and original stewards. These lands, still inhabited by Native descendants, border mountains sacred to Indigenous peoples. We honor them, their legacies, their traditions, and their continued contributions. We celebrate their past, present, and future generations who will forever know this place as home.

4. Public Participation:

Public Participation enables the public to address the Council about items that are not on the prepared agenda. Public Participation appears on the agenda twice, at the beginning and at the end of the work session. You may speak at one or the other, but not both. Anyone wishing to comment on an item that is on the agenda is asked to fill out a speaker card and submit it to the recording clerk. When the item comes up on the agenda, your name will be called. You may address the Council up to three times throughout the meeting, including comments made during Public Participation. Please limit your remarks to three minutes per item to allow everyone an opportunity to speak.

5. Presentation on the High-Country Training Academy

Share information on the High-Country Police Training Academy (HCTA) that is being run in partnership with the Flagstaff Police Department (FPD), Northern Arizona University Police Department (NAUPD), Coconino County Sheriff's Office (CCSO) and the Coconino Community College (CCC).

Staff will provide an update on the project status and review the public participation and scenario planning process that are underway and continuing through the calendar. The Board and Council may provide feedback.

Staff is seeking direction on two major points:

1. How would the Board of Supervisors and City Council like to form a committee to oversee the selection of a scenario, creation of a Future Growth Illustration, and plan translation to goals and policies?
