

KEYS TO PROSPERITY

Coconino County Community Services is launching a new pilot program called Keys to Prosperity (K2P). This program helps you align your values while implementing financial tools to increase your credit rating and savings, reduce debt, and create goals that move you into a future that is obtainable. Free to all community members.

What we offer:

- Free Financial Literacy Workshops
- Goal Setting
- One-on-One Coaching Sessions, 2 per month for 6 months
- In-depth Financial Training
- Budget Management Tools
- Flexible Sessions
- Strong coach-client relationship
- Total Privacy

Awareness

What is your relationship with money?

How does your culture relate to money?

What are your feelings toward money?

What beliefs are causing roadblocks to the future you want to live?

Commitment

This is a 6-month program that uses CCCS staff and volunteers to offer one-on-one coaching sessions dedicated to achieving your goals.

If you are interested in participating, please contact Teresa Gault at 928-679-7428.
