

IPAC TRI-DIVERSITY COUNCIL Fourth Quarter Report October to December 2020

The Indigenous Peoples Advisory Council appreciates the Coconino County Board of Supervisors and community members for supporting our diversity council during this challenging time. IPAC will continue to host virtual meetings and events this year. For more IPAC info, email: diversitycouncils@coconino.az.gov.

OCTOBER 2020:

- 10/12: IPAC partnered with the City of Flagstaff to host an Indigenous Peoples Day celebration
- 10/14: IPAC Work Session held to review strategic plan and goals for this year
- 10/27: New member, Dorothy Denetsosie Gishie appointed to IPAC
- 10/28: IPAC General Meeting held
 - Reviewed new member application for Meg Kabotie Adakai
 - Coconino County Green Team and Sustainability During the Pandemic presented by Amanda Acheson
 - Discussed events to host for Native American Heritage Month in November 2020
 - City of Flagstaff and Indigenous Circle of Flagstaff Update by Rose Toehe
- 10/29: IPAC Member Diana Cudeii attended the Coconino Community College Champions meeting
- October – November: IPAC Member Rose Toehe served as a member with the FUSD Anti-Racism and Anti-Bias Task Force

NOVEMBER 2020:

- 11/3: IPAC Member Dorothy Denetsosie Gishie won election to serve on FUSD Governing Board
- 11/13: Approved to fund $500 to Golden Rules Charities – The Food Pantry
- 11/16: IPAC Member Rose Toehe presented
- 11/17: New member, Meg Kabotie Adakai appointed to IPAC
- 11/19: IPAC Member Diana Cudeii attended NAJA's virtual presentation, "The Invisibility of Indigenous COVID-19 Data"
- 11/23: IPAC Event – "Indigenous Community Cultural Center in Flagstaff" presented by Dr. Chris Jocks, Indigenous Circle of Flagstaff and community members
- 11/24: IPAC Event – "Diverse Perspectives about Thanksgiving" presented by Sharon S. Doctor and Dr. Daisy Purdy
- 11/30: IPAC Event – "Meet and Greet with IPAC" presented by IPAC members
- IPAC Member Rose Toehe attended 2 meetings with the Citizens Liaison Committee with the Flagstaff Police Department

DECEMBER 2020:

- 12/1: MOU established between City of Flagstaff and IPAC to form an Indigenous Commission with 10 members (3 ex-officio IPAC members) led by Rose Toehe, Indigenous Coordinator
 - Ex-officio members are: Diana Cudeii, Dorothy Denetsosie Gishie, and Meg Kabotie Adakai
- 12/9: Tuba City Regional Networking meeting attended by IPAC member Juliette Roddy
- 12/17: IPAC Holiday card to County departments and community members
- 12/23: IPAC General meeting cancelled